

PRESS RELEASE

Date : 24.09.25

James Rasmussen appointed as Managing Director, Management Liability UK & Europe at the specialist MGA.

Amiga Specialty has appointed James Rasmussen as Managing Director, Management Liability UK & Europe, effective immediately.

Based in London and reporting to Group Managing Director & Founder, Adam Kembrooke, Rasmussen will focus on establishing the product line, setting strategic positioning and working with Amiga's capacity partners to provide a best-in-class service and product offering to its brokers.

Kembrooke commented: "James brings a wealth of experience and technical knowledge in the Management Liability space where he has repeated success in building high-performing teams.

"With Amiga's strong ambition to become a leading market, James's market reputation, proven success in developing profitable portfolios, and trusted partnerships with providers and brokers will be instrumental in driving growth and adding value to our carrier partners. His appointment underscores our commitment to executing our growth strategy."

The newly-created role marks the latest milestone in the growth of Amiga Specialty which was set up in the summer of 2025 with backing from investor, B.P Marsh.

Rasmussen was most recently Managing Director of Management Liability at Nexus Underwriting; he also founded the niche financial lines MGA Plus Risk in 2017. Earlier in his career he held senior underwriting and leadership roles at Chubb, Travelers, Marsh and Willis. He began his insurance in 1998.

Rasmussen added: "I'm delighted to be joining Amiga and look forward to using my experience to shape disciplined, forward-thinking growth and help establish Amiga as a trusted and respected market partner."

Since Amiga Specialty launched in May 2025, the business has made a series of key hires to develop its Financial Lines and Transactional Risks both in the UK and Hong Kong.
